1. The Cabin dining chair from Weatherend's Yachting collection complements the outdoors with a Daisy back design in a vibrant Sunburst yellow. Weatherend (T), through Janus et Cie, NYC, 212-752-1117, janusetcie.com, weatherend.com. 2. The Ktribe Outdoor F3 floor lamp, designed by Philippe Starck, provides diffused light for outdoor use. The galvanized structure protects the lamp against summer showers. Flos, NYC, 212-941-4760, flosusa.com. 3. The Flex lounge chair, by Richard Frinier, introduces a new spin on classic strap furniture with resilient Suncloth® straps for comfort, function and style. Brown Jordan (T), A&D, 212-593-1390, through Seasons Too, Darien, 203-655-8444, seasonstoo.com, brownjordan.com. 4. Designer Mark Singer executes a classic-meets-modern theme with the Palazzo lounge chair in Awlgrip glossy black finish. The chair utilizes organic, plantation-grown teak and French Beaumaniere limestone. Giati, through Walters Wicker (T), D&D, 212-758-0472, waltersnyc.com, giati.com. 5. Originally designed in 1956 for movie mogul Mervyn Leroy's Bel Air sunroom lanai, the Iron X chair is available with weather-resistant fabric and powder-coated steel legs. William Haines Designs (T), through Profiles, NYDC, 212-689-6903, profilesny.com, williamhaines.com. 6. James DeWulf transforms an industrial material into a sleek design with the concrete bar cart in a glossy finish. James DeWulf, Los Angeles, CA, 310-315-7100, jamesdewulf.com.
